

"The best thing about Avon is that it's an environment where students with Special Needs can live up to the creed of equality". The students are free to be themselves without fear of being stigmatized. They see themselves in each other and for them, "it's how life is supposed to be".

I love teaching at Avon Lenox. The students are generally eager to learn and make every day exciting and new. I feel so fortunate to work in such an outstanding environment that promotes the wellness and education of every student every day.
