Parents,

What a year!! I can't believe this is the last week of the school year. It has gone by so fast.

This week we are counting down to the official start of summer break with fun themed days and activities. Thank you to everyone that signed up to help with the materials and snacks needed to make each day more fun. Here is a look at what is planned for each day:

Monday 5/22: Beach Day (1st grade was buckets of fun)- students will bring a beach towel and wear Hawaiian shirts, sunglasses, beach hats, etc.

*beachball games; pool noodle games

*beach float activities

*picnic outside on beach towels; ice cream

Tuesday 5/23: Carnival Day (come one, come all; 1st grade was such a ball)- wear red and white

*popcorn toss

*animal cracker graph/snack

*bingo

*beanbag toss

Wednesday 5/24: Space Day (1st grade was out of this world) - students must bring a toilet paper roll

*glow games and dance

*rocket craft

*moon rocks toss (aluminum foil)

*planets game

*asteroids snack (cheese balls)

Thursday 5/25: Camp 1st Grade No "S'More"- students will bring a flashlight

*s'mores around "campfire"

*fishing

*grill (flipping burgers matching game)

*picnic (measure items using ants)

*"hike" around the room scavenger hunt

*flashlight reading in tents

Friday 5/26: Take Me Out to the Ballgame (we made a great team) - students will wear the green field day t-shirt and baseball caps

*we will sign autographs!

*rock/paper/scissors baseball game

*baseball throw

*whiffle ball relay

*cracker jacks

--just like field day, parents are allowed to attend activities on the last day of school. I plan for us to be outside from 9:00-11:00 doing games/activities, followed by our picnic lunch. Feel free to join us during this time.

IN THE CLASSROOM THIS WEEK

COUNTDOWN TO SUMMER!!!

*I needed to rearrange the daily events from my original plan in last week's newsletter to work out better

Fabulous First-Graders

Flat Harvey enjoyed all of his adventures with our first-grade family. Thank you for allowing him to spend time with your family!!
