harder.

Activity: Character Response Scavenger Hunt

 After reading a story, ask yourself about the major events that happened. Search for evidence to explain how characters respond to the major events. Circle or highlight the sentence where you found the answer.

Activity: Retell text

- After reading, retell each section or paragraph in the text, writing down important information. (Example Prompting Questions: What happened in the beginning? What happened next? What information did I learn in the paragraph?)
- Create a chart to organize thoughts while reading to gain a better understanding.
